The contracted price protection ends when Customer has received all pre-purchased gallons or April 30, 2026; whichever comes first. All deliveries to the above referenced address will be made using our automatic delivery schedule and Customer agrees to purchase 100% of heating oil from Seller. Automatic deliveries of premium heating oil will continue uninterrupted until notification to suspend automatic deliveries is received.

Any customer who has a credit balance at the end of this agreement (April 30, 2026) will apply that balance to their account until used by purchases. Remaining contracted gallons as of May 1st, 2026 will be delivered at either the contracted price or daily cash price, whichever is greater.
